

Do Your Bones Glow at Night?

The Veils

I'm like a kitty under an anvil I'm running out of time
I'm like a man without a candle
Heading down the mine
And when I stare at the darkness I see nothing but devils
I was a stranger here but they think I'm on the level
And I can see you in my nightmares
And I can see you in my dreams
Funny every thing I try for ain't what it seems
And I can see you in my nightmares
And I can see you in my dreams
Funny every thing I try for ain't what it seems
Love guide me out of this harsh, ungrateful land of the damned
Just dance me to forever, dance me to forever
Guide me out of this harsh and hateful land of the damned
Just dance me to forever, dance me to forever, love.
Do your bones glow at night?
Do they shimmer in the moonlight?
You know I love you alright
Oh my god.
Do your bones glow at night?
Do they shimmer in the moonlight?
You know I love you alright
Oh my god.
Love guide me out of this harsh, ungrateful land of the damned
Just dance me to forever, dance me to forever
Guide me out of this harsh and hateful land of the damned
Just dance me to forever, dance me to forever, love.
