Mastodon

Charlie Parr

Well my daddy left home at 14 years gone to find his way he left again when I was 25 this time going to stay.

I don't feel welcome around here
I don't feel at home
this old world has brought me low
made me live all alone.

Well I have walked for miles and years
'til I was lost alone like a mastodon buried in the snow couldn't find his way home.

I don't feel welcome around here
I don't feel at home
this old world has brought me low
made me live all alone.

Well now that I'm older and look like all the rest and I'm easy to be ignored I want it free on this side of the fence that separates the rich from the poor.

I don't feel welcome around here
I don't feel at home
this old world has brought me low
made me live all alone.

Well when I die don't you bury me at all no coffin no stone
you can leave me like a mastodon in the snow that's on his way home.

I don't feel welcome around here
I don't feel at home
this old world has brought me low
made me live all alone.

Lyrics submitted by Eric Odens.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/