

The Fire Down Below

Slaves

Stuck between the voice
Stuck between the voice
And the echo

Stuck between the voice
Stuck between the voice
And the echo

Stuck between the voice
Stuck between the voice
And the echo

Stuck between the voice
Stuck between the voice
And the echo

It's time to let my mind go
And I'm willing to fade away with you
If this is how I'm saved
Then let it be

God stopped listening
Cause the wolf kept crying

God stopped listening
Cause the wolf kept crying

Take the air from my lungs
Put it in her's because
She's the one who deserves to live
The one that I pray that God forgives

Pray that God forgives
Pray that God
Pray that God
Pray that God

She's the one who deserves to live
The one He forgives

Can't stop who I've become
My love will never be sung
It's the pain before pleasure
Now speak for the glory of one

Open your eyes
Open your eyes

You deserve better
Now give it your all

Take the air from my lungs
Put it in her's because
She's the one who deserves to live
The one that I pray that God forgives

Pray that God forgives
Pray that God
Pray that God
Pray that God

She's the one who deserves to live
The one He forgives

Why can't my words keep us afloat?
Why can't my words keep us afloat?

If we drown
Let me make it for you
If we drown
Let me make it for you

I never knew love until you
I never felt love until you

So why'd I throw it all away?
Why's it coming unglued?
Why's it coming unglued?

Change me for all the times
You hated my crimes
You hated my crimes

Watch the world burn in her eyes
If we are destined to be damned

If we are destined to be damned

Stuck between the voice
And the echo
