

Hong Kong (Live at Manchester Opera House)

Gorillaz

Lord, hear me now
Don't put an English voice
Crashing out into the noise
Electric fences and guns You swallow me
I'm a pill on your tongue
Here on the nighting floor
The neon lights make me numb And laid in a stars light
It begins to explode
And all the people in a dream
Wait for the machine
Pick the shit up leave it clean Kid hang over here
What you're learning in school
Is the rise of an eastern sun
On a big blue for everyone
