

Cardiac Rebellion

Becoming the Archetype

From somewhere in the darkest depths
Within the cloth of secrets kept
Out of silence death maintained
Resounds a voice that shakes the frame
    Listen now unto the call
    Like nothing heard before
    Living hearts begin to crawl
    Bursting forth through stubborn flesh
    The invisible nature is taking over
    Taking over from within
The invisible creature is breaking though
    Breaking through the skin
        Hey!
        Clear the way!
        Its a revolution!
        Cardiac rebellion!
And now we see them marching
Dragging bodies in their wake
To the call there is no stopping
    It is forever thats at stake
    Its a cardiac rebellion
    So join the revolution
