

Unconditional

Ana Popovic

Do you remember the time
way back in the day
when you were just right for me and I was enough for you back when our love used to be Unconditional
When no questions were asked no reasons to doubt but an absolute truth
back when love used to be Unconditional
With no intention to change the initial thrill
spend hours to inhale the irresistible you
Unconditional
Yeah, back when love used to be Unconditional
