Blind Date

Jimmy Van Heusen

So, you wanna go out with me
Watch me get on my knees and bleed?
I stole this scrapbook from you
Doesn't matter 'cause you stole it tooSugarcoated kisses from my lips
Gives the excitement of a stolen bliss
To create, to love and fight
To create, to love and fight
To create, to love and fight
We won't sleep at all tonightSo, you wanna watch me scream
Dance with me and watch me bleed?
Steal the sound and love it too
Then baby, I'll howl for you
Confused and exhausted with a healthy fix
Let's drink some potion, get it over withShake it around, shake it around, shake it around
Move across town, bring their idols down
Shake it around, shake it around, shake it around
Move across town, kick their idols downThey're screaming 'bout the rock 'n' roll
I would say that it's getting old
Belongs to the museums
It's rotten soul been soldExplosive and crude
Out of line and out of tune
Somehow knowing that
We'll get the message throughHang on as the rebirth of cool takes place
You'll know the time, we'll set the paceSo, you wanna go out with me
Watch me get on my knees and bleed?
I stole this scrapbook from you
Doesn't matter 'cause you stole it toSugarcoated kisses from my lips
Gives the excitement of a stolen bliss
To create, to love and fight
We won't sleep at all tonightShake it around, shake it around, shake it around
Move across town, bring their idols down
Shake it around, shake it around, shake it around
Move across town, kill their idolsShake it around, shake it around, shake it around
Move across town, brake their idols down
Shake it around, shake it around, shake it around
Move across town, kick their idols down
