Angels Fuck

Jack Off Jill

I woke up mourning
I woke up dead today
I aged a thousand years..
Or more
I flinch when you are nice
You kill me with a single word
When angels fuck and devils kiss, I'm sure
I'll bask in your forever
You just waste my time
I want to drag you down
Down with me
I wanted to help
To help destroy the world
I wanted to be that
To be that special girl
Everybody's got a little something to hide... but me
Everybody's got a little someone to crush... but me
I'm living in human teenage mediocrity
Everybody's got a little someone to trust... but me
I dreamed that I was you
I dreamed your ego died
Sad who loves you more than I do
I know you lied
I'll bask in your forever
Fucking waste of time
Angels fuck and devils screw
I wanted to heal me
And then destroy the world
Piss in your heart and be that
And be that special girl
Everybody's got a little something to hide... but me
Everybody's got a little someone to crush... but me
I'm living in teenage negative mediocrity
Everybody's got a little someone to trust... but me
But me, but you
Not me
Hate you
Love me, love me, hate you
Want me, fuck you, hate me

Kill you
Fuck me, like you, want me
Like you want you fuck you
Fuck me, fuck you, fuck you fuck you fuck me
Fuck you, fuck me, fuck you fuck you fuck me
Fuck you, fuck you, fuck you fuck you fuck me
I will never make it better
I will never make it better
It will always hurt you fucking asshole
