

Wavin' My Heart Goodbye

The Flatlanders

Standin' in the station I got no destination
I'm wavin' my heart goodbye
I'm walkin' in the crowd and I'm talkin' out loud
And I'm tellin' myself don't cry And Lord I'd rather not forget what I forgot
But I guess I'm gonna have to try Standin' in the station I got no reservation
I'm wavin' my heart goodbye
I know it's not to blame but it's leavin' just the same
And nobody ever asked it why Standing in the rain wonderin' if the train
Will stop before the tears will dry Standin' in the station it's a sad situation
I'm wavin' my heart goodbye
It's movin' down the track and it ain't lookin' back
And I'm feelin' like I could die A train is made to roam like a heart without a home
And I'm thinkin' maybe so was I wonder will tomorrow come to hide the sorrow
Will the sun forsake the sky?
And Lord I'd rather not forget what I forgot
But I guess I'm gonna have to try Standin' in the station I got no destination
I'm wavin' my heart goodbye
Standin' in the station
I'm wavin' my heart goodbye
