

Cindy

rumHoney

Cindy broke her heart
There's nothing left of her
Slowly grew apart
Forgot how young we were

She still haunts me now and then
Though I know I won't see her again

I ain't losing you
I ain't losing

Cindy had a taste
She had to let it leave
She said "It wasn't all a waste
The money's up my sleeve"

I still think about her time to time
A lonely drink to the left behind

I ain't losing you
I ain't losing you
I ain't losing you
I ain't losing you

Cindy Left her love behing, I ain't losing you
Cindy took all she could find, I ain't losing you
