Light In Your Eyes

Louise Goffin

Every time I have desire
Having close it little farther astray
Let's toss our kiss one by one into the fire
And watch the flames kiss the Milky WayWith a little understanding, everybody breaks down
The world's not as cold as it seems, oh noAnd tell me, girl, you better look out
'Cause everything is turning around
You don't even have to live without it
You just gotta use all the light in your eyesHow did I convince myself
That love wasn't possible
And why did I believe people who were not my friends
But they told me that I could not doEverybody needs a hand up to higher ground
The world's not as scared as it seems, oh noAnd tell me girl, you better look out
'Cause everything is turning around
You don't even have to live without it
You just gotta use all the light in your eyesI'm not talking about forcing a smile
Or denying what you can't reconcile
Your eyes are all open
And all that you see is sublimeYou tell me girl, you better look out
'Cause everything is turning around
You don't even have to live without it
You just gotta use all the light in your eyesYou better look out
'Cause everything is turning around
You don't even have to live without it
You just gotta use all the light in your eyes
Use all the light in your eyes
Use all the light in your eyes
