Let Me Be the One You Need

Bill Withers

May not know enough about you, babe
That can only come in time
Only know enough to make you stay
On my mindThough I met you only yesterday
And only for a moment then
I knew I couldn't let you get away
I just can see you, girlI can be the one you love
Let me be the one you need
Take a look into your heart
Try to find a place for meCan't say I can't live without you, babe
That's just some worn out loser's line
May not know enough about you, babe
But you stay on my mindI can be the one you love
Let me be the one you need
Take a look into your heart
Try to find a place for meI can be the one you love
Let me be the one you need
Take a look into your heart
Try to find a place for meI can be the one you love
Let me be the one you need
Take a look into your heart
Try to find a place for meI can be the one you love
Let me be the one you need
Take a look into your heart
