Worlds Apart

The Generators

I watched the stars fly on by
Im holding on to the hands of time
This darkest hours got a hold on me
A raging storm is driving me out to the seaCause I cant breathe without you
Is this what its all coming down to
Watching the moment pass me byIn the back of my mind
I hear you call
Im trying to stay still
But now I fall
We hold our ground like frozen statues
Breaking from pieces
I used to have something
But now I got nothing left to believe inCause I cant breathe without you
Is this what its all coming down to
Watching the moment pass me by
Am I turning back around again
Or am I -
Going out the morning wind
I feel its all just slipping away
