Pardon Me

Mundy

me coal, me coal-haired lady from the west, i've given you, doll, me very best.
been drunk so many times in your pressence, in my engine, you are the essence.i've drunk my every penny + pounds (?) my friends just to stay another round just to take another look at you me coal-haired lady -- Chartreusepardon me, oh fathom me what's your reason not to see me?
pardon me, oh fathom me you've no reason not to kiss mei've sat and pondered crying and wondered what you wear beneathe your clothes i've thought about your mother + the crows that sit in the apple trees at the bottom of her gardens
pardon me, oh fathom me
tell me, what's your reason for not seeing me
'cause you've no reason for not kissing mei've told my friends Chartreuse is your name and that i have an infatuation i want us to be a plural i know a little place way out in the rural you don't know what i'd do just to kiss your coward country lips and not think about sex for a change Chartreuse -- i think i love youpardon me, oh fathom me what's your reason not to see me?
what's your reason not to kiss me?
'cause you've no reason not to kiss me kiss me
