Wearing My Rolex

Wiley

What would we do?
Usually drink, usually dance, usually bubble
All I want to do is tell you, I love you
That's when I start promising the world
To a brand new girl, I don't even know yet
Next thing, she's wearing my RolexWhat would we do?
Usually drink, usually dance, usually bubble
Usually drink, usually dance, usually bubble
What would we do?
Usually drink, usually dance, usually bubble
All I want to do is tell you, I love youAll I want to do is tell you, I love you
That's when I start promising the world
To a brand new girl, I don't even know yet
Next thing, she's wearing my RolexToo much champs don't know where my phone is Here's my number, she already knows it
This chapter's a lot better, close it
Just a look in her eye was so evil
Wiley's a party guy and she knows itWhat would we do?
Usually drink, usually dance, usually bubble
All I want to do is tell you, I love you
That's when I start promising the world
To a brand new girl, I don't even know yet
Next thing, she's wearing my RolexWhat would we do?
Usually drink, usually dance, usually bubble
All I want to do is tell you, I love you
That's when I start promising the world
To a brand new girl, I don't even know yet
Next thing, she's wearing my RolexWhat would we do?
Usually drink, usually dance, usually bubble
Usually drink, usually dance, usually bubble
What would we do?

All I want to do is tell you, I love youAll I want to do is tell you, I love you
