

In a Former Life

Future of the Left

he was prince paul's pekinese spent all his days tearing the leather from lounge chairs
in a former life
he was queen anne's gigolo and he leaked all over the morning in a former life everyone was a performer in a former life nobody is a container in a former life he was pregnant constantly 28 children departed before he was stored
in a former life
he was ron pearlman's gas tank til he leaked all over the morning aristotle has gone to the cinema marie curie is buying live yoghurt drinks alan alda is risking his final tooth crop rotation is not on the schedule crop rotation does not really work
