Mystica Girls

A tangled knot in your guts.
Breathing in a living hell.
Trying to fucking stay awake.
World of glass that will break. But you can see her now!
Yeah! You can see her now! Setting their hearts on fire,
igniting their desire,
rocking their world louder,
charming with all her light. Setting their hearts on fire,
igniting their desire,
rocking their world louder, charming with all her light. Watching the life from the tramples.
Not hidden in shadows you were.
Dreaming awake is as good as it gets.
Truth in the mirror can't tell. But you can see her now!
Yeah! You can see her now! Setting their hearts on fire,
igniting their desire,
rocking their world louder,
charming with all her light. Setting their hearts on fire,
igniting their desire,
rocking their world louder, charming with all her light. But you can see her now!
Yeah! You can see her now! Setting their hearts on fire,
igniting their desire,
rocking their world louder,
charming with all her light. Setting their hearts on fire,
igniting their desire,
rocking their world louder,
charming with all her light. Setting their hearts on fire,
igniting their desire,
rocking their world louder, charming with all her light.
