

Behind The Mask

Old Man's Child

Can you hear the voices call
Or will you die before the charge
Will you meet the face of death
The one you fear, and will despise.
Lord of Chaos in disguise
A devil behind the mask,
He who brings sorrow in life
Will haunt you down, a simple task
Who can it be? Where is he from?
Cud it be me? am I the one? I feel its wrath from deep within
A hidden beast, creates my sin.
It's no return I must be strong
And fulfill my vocation,
I'm reborn with a demons heart
Which is black like the deepest dark. Lord of Chaos in disguise
A devil behind the mask,
Who can it be? Where is he from?
Cud it be me? am I the one?
I feel its wrath from deep within
A hidden beast, creates my sin.
