

He Who Sleeps

Morbid Angel

awaken my brothers of vengeance we rise to devulge this enemy to enlighten the ones who sleepworlds have passed and so too time my slumber now disturbed this place of hate, this world shall burnyou will ?? you will destroy yourselves mortals, your slithering existence sickens the gods, my brothers it awoke me, from timeless sleepmy dreams destroyed, my visions lost so I watch you pray,humans, I shall feast upon your ignorance.forgive me father ? I am not your god and spite your worlds you have fallen, curse your empty lives you crawl to me, and beg to me my sheep, blind, like wolves you turn on yourselves
