Quiet Fire

James Leary

I'm burnin? up, burnin? up, quiet fire
Take, take my hand, do with it what you will
I'm in dire need
'Cause' all I want is somebody to love me like I do
Well, all I want is somebody to love me like I do
You walk away, nothing left to say but bye, bye blue eyes
And I, you know that I, I don't understand, no
'Cause' all I want is somebody to love me like I do
Well, all I want is somebody to love me like I do
Well, you can call me half crazy
Call me certifiably nuts, all for love
What do you get for letting me win so easily?
Put up your dukes, baby, what are you made of?
This isn't right, no, this isn't right
You know that I'm not one to fuss
But what have you done to me
You hardly make love to me now
My poor heart's about to bust
Right out of its seams
'Cause' all I want is somebody to love me like I do
Well, all I want is somebody to love me like I do
Burnin? up, quiet fire
