Don't Let the Rain

La Bouche

All was so smooth and all was so easy, and people dancing, under the sun.
The skies were blue, the weekend of fun, but then it happened, run boys run.
The riots grew wilder and someone cried "Fire!"
Time was up as the ???? grew higher. Take what your get and get out of here boys,
Ooo, they came from nowhere, running with fire.
Ohh, run boys run. Ohh run boys run.Don't let the rain fall on my head
Don't let the rain fall on my head
Don't let the rain fall on my head
Don't let the rain fall on my headDon't let the rain hey la la la
Don't let the rain hey la la laAll was so smooth and all was so easy, and people dancing and under the sun.
The sky was blue, the weekend of fun, Ohh, but then it happened, run boys run.
Ohhh, run boys run. Ohhh, run boys run.
