

Swirling

Yuck

I'm driving past
Your mother's house
Your bedroom light
Has long burned out
Trying to hold on to what I've learned
You will never get what you deserve I've heard these words
A thousand times
This candle burns
Inside your mind
Trying to hold on to what is real
You well never know just how I feel
Trying to reach over
But the pain goes on
In the end I'll see you
When our days are gone I waited 'til you
Came back home
You've been to Paris
But never Rome
Trying to forget what's in the past
When I see your face it doesn't last Trying to reach over
But the pain goes on
In the end I'll see you
When our days are gone
Trying to reach over
But the pain goes on
In the end I'll see you
When our days are gone
