Roller Coaster

Prospect Hill

The ride were on is about to begin Im waiting for it to come back again Sides are taken dont step out of line Turn back now or always ask whyAround we go These tracks of life
Holding on to this bar so tight
You twist and turn Until you fall
I roll my eyes Ignore your callI said you said it never really matters so why do we ride this roller coasterI said you said
it never really matters so
why cant we see that this is overThis roller coaster
is going nowhere is going nowhereOnce again
It never ends
A steady climb quickly descends
You scream and shout Go back and forth
Still holding tight Trapped on this courseI said you said
why cant we see that this is overThis ride were on
Is going to end
Will I ever learn
Or get on again
Now I know it turns intoI said you said
why cant we see that this is overI said you said
why cant we see that this is overThis roller coaster
This roller coaster

is going nowhere...
