

Who You Are

Anastasia Bosta

WHO YOU ARE ( lyrics)

My way is unknown,
And i open again next door.
While Im in process of my searching,
I feel empty, I cant see my road

And only when I pray
I can see your light,
I can find my way!

And I know you hear
All my thoughts
And you will come to me!

CHORUS:

And only I know who you are
Who you are - I know! (x2)

You can stay outside
Or you can come inside
In any way Ill feel (you) Ill try!

Ill try to catch your breath
And give you all you need,
In any way Ill try Ill feel

My destiny is dangerous game,
Im running faster to catch the last train,
I lost my all, I lost my head
It was destruction i couldnt explain

And only when I prayed
I could see the light,
I could find my way!

And I know you heard
All my thoughts
And you have come to me, my Lord!

CHORUS

Brige:

I try... I feel... I know...I see..

I try... I feel... I know...

CHORUS
