

Shores

Bryan & Katie Torwalt

All depression wash away
On the shores of your great love
And let addiction and all shame
Be laid down at your feet
Come awake, awake my soul
I feel justice rising
Breathe new life into these bones
I can feel your heartbeat
Chorus:
Freedom, take hold of my heart
Spirit of God, come fill this place
Jesus, You're all that I want
Have your way
And you bring peace in every storm
'Cause you are my anchor
A hope that's deep within my soul
Oh, the strength of Your love
Tears down walls, tears down strongholds
That keep me back from You
Perfect love that's never ending
It leads me to all truth
Bridge:
All creation knows that
You alone are God
As we sing Your praises
God, let our hearts respond
