

Made of Stone

Daughter

What if I'm made of stone?
Feeling is not a system
Nervous and cold in your home
Hoping I'm over thinking
I should be feeling more
Draped over your bones
Paint colors up the walls
To spread our inspirations
You are the likely cause
Of what will be mine
Tonight Oh it's not surprising
Just inconvenient
To play no part in
All of the instruments
Seem to be sounding out
It's premature I think I'm made of stone
I should be feeling more Love
It's just face painting
Love
It's just easing, awaiting
Before
Dying without company
