The Day We Stopped Talking

Emma Forman

The day we stopped talking our love seemed to end I would have forgiven if you had been honest then instead of playing a game of deciet if you've told me back then I might have forgivenThe day we stopped talking was the day our love died
The day we stopped when you told me those lies
The day we stopped talking was the day our love died when I knew couldn't trust youIt's not what you did, it's the lies that you told I wasn't strong enough to rise above it broke my heart to find out that way had my suspicion confirmed one dayThe day we stopped talking was the day our love died
The day we stopped when you told me those lies
The day we stopped talking was the day our love died when I knew couldn't trust youThere can be no love where there is no trust No love no trust and I don't love you, I dont love no more, no no no, no no noThe day we stopped talking was the day our love died
The day we stopped when you told me those lies
The day we stopped talking was the day our love died when I knew couldn't trust you
