

Parents

Budgie

When I was a little boy,
They would say to me,
Don't go in the world and play,
It's bad company.
All they had was child and faith,
Let them grow and let them wait,
Just to find what it was to be free. But now I'm over twenty one
Growing up I've had my fun
And I know it's got to be.
Baby lying in a womb,
Are you free or in a tomb?
Let me in, I feel I want to cry.
Oh the road is there,
Oh that road is there,
Come on back, back! Wash Your hands and up to bed,
Mind your manners or your dead,
Mind the cars cos you've got school on monday.
Put my trust in god
Who is he I know not what
Something mummy said to me one sunday.
Maybe love is life but life is not something I need plenty of.
Oh I wished I'd never lived a day,
now there's no one near me now,
tell me what to do and how.
Take me, let me sing my cares away!
Oh that road is there,
Oh that road is there,
Come on back, back! Wash your hands and up to bed,
Mind your manners or your dead,
mind the cars cos you've got school on monday.

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>