

Nothing Left

Billy Price

We're all a little messed up in our own ways
And we always, will be marking days on prison walls
Every you think that maybe there's a chance for redemption
 Don't hold tight onto your own breath
 Before you know there's nothing left
 There's nothing left in your memories
 That has a thing to do with me
 Or where I've been for all these years
 Grinding smiles and forcing gears
 I never thought I'd ever be this old
And I always, never made a point to never act my age
Now I guess it's silly to expect anything more from

Everyone that gave so much and more
 You gave your time
 That has a thing to do with me
 That gives you reason to believe
 That the words I'm telling you
 Have always turned out to be true
I've tried and I've tried to keep you satisfied
 Though I may never reach the top
 Every step along the climb is Everything I wanted in this life
 Cause you gave your time
