

Innocence

Hootie & The Blowfish

What else can I do
When the tears have all been wasted?
And the only voice you choose to hear
Sings the songs of our hearts breakin'
Say your dreams, they all have changed
Well, my smiles, they all have faded
And the thoughts that used to seem so pure in my heart
They now feel jaded
Because I wanna feel like I did
And I wanna feel innocence
What else can it be
Except this pride, I'm sick of drinkin'
Storm clouds all have gone away
Can we stop this thing from sinkin'?
Because I wanna feel like I did
And I wanna feel innocence
And I want you to know
And to feel in your soul
That someone has come and gone
I'm stuck up here with you
I never thought we'd get this high
I used to be afraid of falling
Now, I'll spread my wings and I will fly
I wanna feel like I did
And I wanna feel innocence
I wanna feel like I did
Oh and I wanna feel innocence, oh, I
