

Sarah

Damien Jurado

She's gonna come in and say, How are you?
My day was pretty blue
Sit on the sofa, she'll take off her shoes
And think of something fun to doShe's wearing my sweater
She's asleep in my bedroom
She'll borrow my wardrobe for a weekShe's watching the TV
She's out on the front porch
She's running rampant in the streetsSarah takes on the world
She'll prove that the girl was more than you thoughtShe's gonna come in and say, How are you?
My day was pretty blue
Sit on the sofa, she'll take off her shoes
And think of something fun to doShe's wearing my sweater
She'll sleep in my bedroom
She'll borrow my wardrobe for a weekShe's watching the TV
She's out on the front porch
She's running rampant in the streetsSarah takes on the world
She'll prove that the girl was more than you thought
Sarah takes on the world
She'll prove that the girl was more than you thoughtSarah takes on the world
She'll prove that the girl was more than you thought
Sarah takes on the world
She'll prove that the girl was more than you thought
