

Broken Wings

Antalgia

Under my disguise
Hidden to world
Years of loneliness
The trail of the comet
Is still alive although
It extinguished years ago
 My broken wings
With no more strength
 Won't let me fly
Now under the rain
 I fall on my knees
I'll die if you leave
Don't let the echo of our laughs die
 The feeling weakens
And all my memories are fading out like
 Dust in the...
An uncontrollable line of
 Silence and disagreement
I would like to eliminate
 Without thinking I beg
 You cure my pain
Which still can be erased
 Ignore this dream
Which you are taking has a game
 Let me resurrect
 Let our destiny be
 Witness and judge of words
I should never have said
Don't let the echo of our laughs die
 The feeling weakens
And all my memories are fading out like
 Dust in the wind
Being converted in
 Statue of salt
 Can be avoided
 As I turn around
Wishing on your arrival
Don't let the echo
 Of our laughs die
The feeling weakens
Don't let the echo of our laughs die
 The feeling weakens
And all my memories are fading out like
 Dust in the wind
 I want to believe

Show me I have motives to wait for you
