

You Were Good In Your Time

Morrissey

Let the heart rest
Lay back your head
You were good in your time
And we thank you You made me feel less alone
You made me feel not quite so
Deformed, uninformed and hunchbacked Time takes all breath away
You were good in your time
And we thank you so, so You said more in one day
Than most people say
In a lifetime, it was our time
And we thank you An end-of-the-ride sigh
Your soft smile says
Please understand
I must surrender Then you grip with your hand
Now so small in mine
Are you aware wherever you are
That you have just died?
