Haircut

The Waifs

This is more than a haircut I'm wearing on my head
I thought I'd dye it red but got it cut instead
And maybe I could send you my long blond locks
Cause you were always after something baby something I'm notSee I'm darker underneath, I'm darker by far
I'm dark as hell you know who you areMy eyes, I always, I wished they where green
My skin is so damn brown but the sun, it don't see
And fingernails I could've stuck them on
The hair on my lip I should've waxed it offYeah I know my lips could do with a little more pout
The mole on my chin I can do with out
And my cheekbones, they never sat real high
I'll get some bone put in, they can take it from My thighsI'm darker underneath, I'm darker by far
I'm as dark as hell - you know who you areSo now when I make love I make love to myself
I got no disease so it's good for my health
I got my hands in my pants down my calvin kleins
I don't need you no more baby, I can come every timeI'm darker underneath, I'm darker by far
I'm as dark as hell you know who you areDon't you ever show your face here again
To me or any of my friends
'Cause I'm glad I found out what you're all about
When I finally fell down off my cloudCause baby when you ran away
You broke my heart
You kept my Kerouac books and that old guitar
And I am darker underneath, I'm darker by far
I'm as dark as all hell, you know what you are
I don't need to tell you, you know what you are
I don't need to tell you, you know what you are
I don't need to tell you - I don't need to tell you, no
You know what you areThis is more than a haircut I'm wearing on my head
I thought I'd dye it red but got it cut instead.
