Golden Ring

J.J. Cale

He gave to you a golden ring
It made you happy, it made you sing
I played for you on my guitar
It didn't last long, we didn't go far
Though the times have changed
We're rearranged
Ties that bind remain the sameYou came around after a while
Everyone said I made you smile
All went well, suddenly then
You heard that he would marry againTimes have changed
We're rearranged
Ties that bind remain the sameI know that I have been here before
I've trod on your wings, I've opened the door
If I gave to you a golden ring
Would I make you happy, would I make you sing?Times have changed
We're rearranged
Ties that bind remain the sameTimes have changed
We're rearranged
Ties that bind remain the same
