

I of the Storm

Of Monsters and Men

If I could face them
If I could make amends with all my shadows
I'd bow my head and welcome them
But I feel it burning
Like when the winter wind
Stops my breathing
Are you really gonna love me when I'm gone?
I fear you won't
I fear you don't And it echoes when I breathe
Until all you see is my ghost
Empty vessel, crooked teeth
Wish you could see And they call me under
And I'm shaking like a leaf
And they call me under
And I wither underneath
In this storm I am a stranger
I am an alien inside a structure
Are you really gonna love me when I'm gone?
With all my thoughts
And all my faults
I feel it biting
I feel it break my skin so uninviting
Are you really gonna need me when I'm gone?
I fear you won't
I fear you don't And it echoes when I breathe
Until all you see is my ghost
Empty vessel, crooked teeth
Wish you could see And they call me under
And I'm shaking like a leaf
And they call me under
And I wither underneath
In this storm I feel it And they call me under
And I'm shaking like a leaf
And they call me underneath
To this storm
