Confession

Bleeding Through

Yesterday I reached my end
Now I'm watching you leave me
And today I feel sick
I hear voices now, this girl is killingHer face was pale
She couldn't even shed a single tear
Over my lifeless body
She doesn't realize 'cause she never loved meToday I hate myself
Look at what I've done to you
See what you've done to me
You sent me straight to hellNow is this confession pointless?
Was my love entirely useless?
She'll never know 'cause I'm face down in the ground
Underground , face down undergroundTonight I killed myself
They said a prayer standing over my body
Rusty casket, empty funeral[Incomprehensible] pointless
Was her love completely truthless?
She doesn't care even now that I'm goneThat night you left that night I died
That night I died that night I died
That night you left was that night I diedThe air was cold, set for a brilliant suicide
The night was still
That night you left was that night I died
