

She's a Knockout

Social Distortion

Everywhere she go, people turn their heads
She's a knockout
Everyone wishes she was sleepin' in their beds
She's a knockout When guys see her comin' they start spendin' their money
She's a knockout
But don't you know I'm the only one who can call her honey
She's a knockout She's a knockout
She's a knockout
She's a knock
She's a knockout She's exotic but not foreign, built like an old Cadillac
She's a knockout
Once she's left your life she ain't never comin' back
She's a knockout In her black silk stockings and her high heeled shoes
She's a knockout
Once she's left your life, you'll surely sing the blues
She's a knockout She's a knockout
She's a knockout
She's a knock
She's a knockout Some friends were tellin' me, just the other day
They walk right up to her, they don't know what to say
And when she calls me, hear a ring on the telephone
I'll be there waiting for her, sitting at home all alone
All alone In the night clubs baby when the lights shine down
She's a knockout
If the feeling ain't right, she don't even come around
She's a knockout When she walks down the aisles, you know her hips begin to sway
She's a knockout
Come on little baby, I'll show you the way
She's a knockout She's a knockout
She's a knockout
She's a knock
She's a knockout She's a knockout
She's a knockout
She's a knock
She's a knockout
