

Lust for Kicks

The Cars

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

He's got his plastic sneakers
She's got her robuck purse
He's got his butane flicker
She's got it worse They're crazy about each other
Like a misplaced fix
They're mad about each other
And they blame it all on the lust for kicks He's got his own dumb waiter
She's reading one fell swoop
He gets around to it later
She fills the scoop They're crazy about each other
Like a misplaced fix
They're mad about each other
And they blame it all on the lust for kicks
They blame it all on the lust for kicks He's just a hit parader
She's just a cycle ride
He likes to masquerade her
When she tells him lies They're mad about each other
Like a misplaced fix
They're crazy about each other
And they blame it all on the lust for kicks
They blame it all on the lust for kicks
They blame it all on the lust for kicks, kicks On the lust for kicks
On the lust for kicks
On the lust for kicks
On the lust for kicks
On the, on the lust for kicks
