

Nothing's That Great

Julia Nunes

Have you ever gone back
To the things you used to love?
Old shoes, old friends, old bands, old trends,
It hurts when you discover thatNothings that great,
You had bad taste
Its much too late
To get back the time you wastedTeenage boys out having fun,
Trying to pass for 21
I sit back and wonder what its like
Cause everyone I know is broken, or broke, or both
And Im sick of seeing things not turn out right
BecauseNothings that great,
You had bad taste
Its much too late
To get back the time you wastedYeah, yeah, yeahAnd the whos who of the fun years
Sit out saying,
When I was young
I thought I have grown, become mature,
Now I am sure that Im as dumb as I ever was
And I know its becauseTender hands and a smile
Does not a mother make,
The years she spent teaching you,
Common sense is what it takesNothings that great,
You had bad taste
Its much too late
To get back the time you wastedYeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah
