

To Die A Virgin

The Divine Comedy

Well, we've been going together
Since the eighth of November
And though it seems like forever
I very clearly remember You told me on our first date
    What you'd do on my birthday
    Well hooray it's my birthday
And frankly, baby, I can't wait I don't want to die a virgin The other day I discovered
    A magazine of my brothers
    I read it under the covers
It got me all hot and bothered Now every time that I see you
    Your uniform becomes see-through
    You don't know how much I need you
The 'Handy Andy's' I've been through I don't want to die a virgin The pines and the cedars rejoice in his fall
    How are you fallen from heaven?
Oh Hellel, star of the morning With all the bombs and the bird-flu
    We're probably gonna be dead soon
    And here we are in your bedroom
Oh, did I tell you I love you I love you I love you I can feel your heart beating
    And your breathing increasing
    Your folks are out for the evening
I really hope I'm not dreaming I don't want to die a virgin
