Destiny

Glenn Hughes

Look what you've done
You think that you're the only one
The day's already gone, it's gone
I've found the strength to carry
Carry on, ooh baby I'm going to carry onYou say you love me
But you're the only one you see
That ain't the way, that ain't the way that it should be
Is this, is this my destiny
Oh is this my destiny I know this is my destinyI'm not the guy that you see
The road is clear in front of me
It's plain to see
This is my destiny
Plain to see, clear in front of meYou've been havin' fun
It's all been said and done
Your time will come, you'll be the lonely one
Oh the lonely one, oh baby, oh babyYou know I wanted you
Do you know what I've been through
What do you want from me?
What do you expect me to be?I'm not the guy that you see
The road is clear in front of me
It's plain to see
This is my destiny
Plain to see, clear in front of me
