Bleeding Me

Godsmack

Way, way down inside
There's a hollow soul
An emptiness shatters tomorrowAnd I find it hard to breathe
For me in your company
Seems I've been taken for grantedAnd you're breaking me
And bleeding me down to nothing
It's tearing me downYou're breaking me
And bleeding me down to nothing
YeahMaybe, this time
Baby, it's meant to be
No more suffocating you or me
Oh, yeahAnd I payed the price
But you're sentencing me to life
And I feel I bought in my timeAnd you're breaking me
And bleeding me down to nothing
It's tearing me downYou're breaking me
And bleeding me down to nothing
AgainOh, you're breaking me
And bleeding me again
You're bleeding me, you're bleeding meAnd you're breaking me
And bleeding me down to nothing
You're tearing me downYou're breaking me
And bleeding me down to nothing
You're tearing me, tearing me down againTearing me down again
You're breaking me
And bleeding meBleeding me again
