Third Wish

Keepsake

I, I wish, I could be alone
With you for one last timeWhen I left, I gave you back
My only symbol of our love
You promised me one thing
Please hold yourself to thatThe things that I would say to you
Would spark the flame
That once burned so brightMy only symbol of our love
You promised me one thing
Please hold yourself to thatThe things that I would say to you
Would spark the flame
That once burned so brightWhen I left, I gave you back
My only symbol of our love
You promised me one thing
Please hold yourself to thatThe things that I would say to you
Would spark the flame
That once burned so bright
