

Leaning On Bells

Chad VanGalen

The morning hits the night
Like it was leaning on some bells
Cold winds spring from the skies
Give me chills chills chills
I will seek revenge
I will seek revenge for you
Ohhh oh ohh
Stolen from your bed
You're lost inside your mind
Begging for silver moons
Give me fire fire fire
I will seek revenge
I will seek revenge for you
Ohhh oh ohh
You travel in between worlds
You travel in between worlds
The morning hits the night
Like it was leaning on some bells
Cold winds spring from the sky
Give me chills chills chills
I will seek revenge
I will seek revenge for you
Ohhh oh ohh
You travel in between worlds
You travel in between worlds
