

Amrs of Venus

Autumnal

Standing outside her front door
hey I've been here before,
Pushing in before she want's me haven't learnt to call,
I'm so gone, you know I really, really like her,
Letting her move in her own time is hard for me to do,

Her heart will wait for it's own sweet chosen time,
I must stop, get my feet back on the ground,
Pick a flower before it opens, watch it wilt and die,
Hold it too close to your chest, watch it fade away,

I'm so gone, you know I really really like her, letting her move in her own time is hard for me to do,

Her heart will wait for it's own sweet chosen time,
I must stop, get my feet back on the ground,
Her heart will wait for it's own sweet chosen time,
Her heart will wait,
Oh I must wait alone

See the moon light, on the water,
Feel the cool wind blowing through me
Calm the fire burning in me,
Venus wrap your arms around me

I'm so gone, you know I really really like her, letting her move in her own time is hard for me to do,

Her heart will wait for it's own sweet chosen time,
I must stop, get my feet back on the ground,
Her heart will wait for it's own sweet chosen time,
Her heart will wait,
Oh I must wait alone

I must calm my shaking heart and slow myself to her strange movement.
