DND

DND, now they'll leave us alone
DND, now you turn off the phone
I'll like you to make the whole world disappear
And I'll like you to make everything seem so clear
And I'll like you to make me wanna stay forever
Here behind your door
DND, hang the sign on the door
DND, don't disturb us no more
I'll like you to make your love my hideaway
And I'll like you to make my troubles slide away
And I'll like you to make me want to play forever
Here behind your door
Minute I got some space and time
I wanted to get me back in the crowd
Minute I got some peace

You found me trying to make my way too loud, what a clown
DND, leave the hotel at noon
DND, will I see you soon?
I'll like you to make the whole world disappear
And I'll like you to make everything seem so clear
And I'll like you to make me wanna stay forever
Here behind your door
Minute I got some space and time
I wanted to get me back in the crowd
Minute I got some peace
You found me trying to make my way too loud, what a clown
DND, DND, DND
Now they'll leave us alone
