I Let You Go Again

The Faders

Yesterday you were with me
Seems like forever
You've been gone
I sit alone and all
I think about is you
And what we had (what we had)

I let you go
Slipped through my fingers
Now you're gone
Just when I had it all
I let you go again
I let you go again

I can't make myself feel better
Can't feel anything at all
I never meant to hurt you
And tear us both apart
What have I done?
What have I done?

And I let you go
Slipped through my fingers
Now you're gone
Just when I had it all
I let you go again
I let you go again
I let you go again

Same old story
You and me trying
To make it work
But all we wanted
Turned to dust
But baby, It's all my fault
I'm telling you baby
It's all my fault

And I let you go
Slipped through my fingers

Now you're gone
Just when I had it all
I let you go again
I let you go again
I let you go again
I let you go again
