

Weight Of The World

Lemar

It's like, chasing shadows
I never seem to win
Just when I'm over you
I feel myself falling again
No hope of grace,
I'm loosing faith
All I can do is pray...Can you hear me
Can you hear me ohh...
Can you hear meChorus:
'cause it feels like the weight of the world
Have the angels turned their back on me
It feels like the weight of the world
Can't let go of what we use to be
And though my cries have gone unheard and I'm left on my knees
It feels like the weight of the world
'cause I still remember how it felt
When you loved me... when you loved me oh...Verse:
I got no rule to follow
Left with no eyes to see
No love to borrow,
Since you left I can barely breathe
In my lonely place and it can't be traced
All I can do is pray...Can you hear me
Can you hear me ohh
Can you hear meChorus:
It feels like the weight of the world
Have the angels turned their back on me
It feels like the weight of the world
Can't let go of what we use to be
And though my cries have gone unheard and I'm left on my knees
It feels like the weight of the world
'cause I still remember how it felt
When you loved me...
When you loved me...Bridge:
Love me again or set me free
Love me again
Love me again or set me freeChorus:
It feels like the weight of the world
Have the angels turned their back on me

It feels like the weight of the world
Can't let go of what we use to be
And though my cries have gone unheard and I'm left on my knees
It feels like the weight of the world
'cause I still remember how it felt
When you loved me...
You loved me oh...
Say you love me, again...
When you love me...
