

If U Ever

Sinead O'Connor

The memories you bring
Make my eyes both sting
I can't help the pain that's tearing
At my throat and my chest
Where everything is kept
When I start remembering
How the clothes that you wore
Made my heart so sore
I just couldn't think anymore
Of you once you were gone
And it's been so long
I've been carrying on
And if you ever came home in the night
Darling I'll treat you right
Oh, darling I'll treat you right You got into your car and you drove as far
As you could and even further
And no matter how I sang
I just never can
Stop needing your hand
Though I got into my own car and I drove as far
As I could so that I might forget you
I never could, does that mean I'm no good
If it doesn't it should But if you ever came home in the night
Darling I'd treat you right
Oh darling I'd treat you right If you ever came home in the night
Darling I'd treat you right
And darling I'd treat you right
